You need to be registered at Audible/Amazon to redeem a code – if you aren't, you'll be prompted to register prior to redemption =E2 but you do not need a paid membership plan. To distribute the promo codes, I recommend sharing the steps below in an email (don't forget to replace the instructions in brackets in step 2 with the URL for your audiobook's listing on Audible):

1. Go to www.audible.com.
2. Search for my title at the top right of the page, or go straight to my audiobook's listing
3. Add my audiobook to your cart and click the shopping cart icon at the top right hand corner of the website. (NOTE: If you're an Audible member or on a gift membership please be sure to "uncheck=E2 the box in the – credits applied- column so you don't use a credit, and then click the "UPDATE" button)
4. If prompted, sign into your account or create a new Audible account.
5. Beneath the audiobook in your cart, you will see "Do you have a promotional code?" Click on this link, enter your promo code, and click "Apply Code". Please know that only one promo code can be applied per purchase.
6. Click "Next Step" and then click "Complete Purchase".

You are a critical part of making your audiobooks successful, so be sure to spread the word by sharing your links with fans, friends, family, and press. For more advice on promotion, check out our Author Tip Sheet:
